

BLUE EDUCATION IN ACTION

APRIL 9TH, 2024

A DEDICATED TRAINING FOR TEACHERS
AND EDUCATION PROFESSIONALS INTERESTED BY...

BRINGING THE BLUE TO YOUR CLASSROOM!

ON SITE: el Center de la Platja, Barcelona

Organized by ICM-CSIC

Supported by: Christian Esteva Burgos (Sea Teach, Spain) and François Morisseau (OFB, France)

Understand the overall blue education context. Discover sources of inspiration and resources.
Start thinking about the pet project you will develop with and for your class or school!

AGENDA

16h00	Opening - welcome, objectives of the training, agenda
16h05	Experience your connection with the blue!
16h35	Blue education in practice: two sources of inspiration Learning from the Blue School experience in Majorca - Christian Esteva Burgos , Sea Teach (Spain) The French Aires Marines Educatives (Educational marine areas): an eco-citizenship experiential learning project – François Morisseau , Office Français de la Biodiversité (France)
17h05	Positioning the blue education conversation in its wider international and EU contexts The Decade of the Ocean, its missions and challenges – Carine Simon , ICM-CSIC (Spain) Discovering the Network of EU Blue Schools and how it can support you Evy Copejans EMSEA (Belgium) & Carine Simon , ICM-CSIC (Spain)
17h40	Thinking ahead: Questions & Answers
17h55	Closing statements
18h00	End of the workshop

contact csimon@icm.csic.es